AUTHORIZED CAPITAL

FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS.

GEN. N. B. PEARCE, Pres't.

S. L. TRIPPE, Sec'y.

Having been appointed agent for the above Company, I respectfully call the attention of the citizens of this section of North Carolina, to the fact that this is a Southern Company with an authorized Capital of $500,000. It's business is ably conducted, by influential, reliable and wealthy citizens of Tennessee.

It has the finest references, and has always been exceedingly prompt in its payments, as can be shown by its records, being sustained by wealthy gentlemen.

It takes both Life and Fire risks on terms as low as any Eastern Company.

This Company is just being introduced into its sister State and I hope it will be well patronized.

Let us support and encourage each other and keep all our money at home.

No one is obliged now to go North to get himself or his property insured, as he can be accommodated here by a company of greatest reliability.

I can be found at any hour of the day at the Raleigh National Bank.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts, or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

I have tried Mr. Wm. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them very good. L. M. TUCKER.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,

$400 REWARD!

A PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of North Carolina:

WHEREAS, it has been represented to me, that JAMES K. MORROW, late of the County of Cherokee, in said State, stands charged with the murder of Harlan A. Boone, of said County and State, and that the said Morrow is a fugitive from justice:

Now, therefore, in order that the said Morrow may be arrested and brought to trial, for said alleged murder, I, JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of said State, do issue this my Proclamation, offering the reward of FOUR HUNDRED DOLLARS for his apprehension and delivery to the Sheriff of Cherokee County.

In witness whereof, His Excellency, JONATHAN WORTH, Governor of said State, has hereto set his hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed.

Done at the City of Raleigh, this 22d. day of November A. D. 1866.

JONATHAN WORTH.

By the Governor:

CLOSING OUT SALE.

OF THE SEASON.

FOURTH AND LAST

GRAND OPENING

OF DRY GOODS,

THIS FALL.

Having attended the closing Dry Goods auction sales in New York last week, and bought largely many of the Goods at over one hundred per cent. less than similar Goods early in the season, I am now prepared to offer the largest and best assortment of the season at fully 50 to 100 per cent. less than at any previous time this season.

I would also state the late purchases are far superior in quality, style and fabric to anything offered in this market this season.

I will also reduce the price of the present stock to correspond with the heavy decline in the price of all kinds of Dry Goods. You will now have an opportunity from the best and largest stock in Virginia at prices that cannot but please.

I will enumerate a few of the prices, that you may form some idea of what you can do.

You can buy good plain Colored Silks for $1, worth early in the season $1.50.

You can buy elegant Colored Silks for $1.50, worth $2.50 early in the season.

Can buy any Silk in stock for which we asked $2.50 to $3, for $1.75 to $2.

You can buy beautiful real Zaffetta for $3, worth $5 early in the season.

You can buy magnificent Rept and Cardea Silk, in solid colors, $3 to $3.50, worth early in the season from $5 to $6.

You can buy super Black Ground Silks, with colored embroidered spots, for $3.50. The same also in Colored Ground. These silks are the newest styles in market, and worthy the attention of the ladies.

You can buy Black Silks for $1, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2, 2.50, $3, $3.50. The same goods have been sold in this place this season from 50 cents to $1.50 per yard more money.

You can buy any kind of Silk at Smith's at a saving of from $5 to $10 per dress.

You can buy all wool Delaines, in all colors, at Smith's, for 50 cents. They are worth it in gold.

You can buy best and newest style of Delaines at Smith's for 25 cents; plain Colored Cashmeres at 25 cents; solid Colored Delaines, in brilliant figures, at 30 cents, worth 50 cents; good Empress Cloths in cotton and wool for 40 cents, worth 75 cents; 6-4 Alpacas 50 cents, worth 75 cents to $1.

You can buy real all wool Rept Empress Cloth for 85 cents, worth $1.50

You can buy the finest Empress Cloth imported for, $1. I have sold such goods early in the season for 2.

You can buy real Velour Rept, a new thing, for $1.50, worth $2.50.

You can buy Elastine, best goods imported for the best trade, for $1.25, worth $2.

You can buy real French Merinos for $1 per yard, same goods cost me early in the season $1.55.

You can buy any kind of Dress Goods at Smith's as low as anywhere in this country.

You can buy the latest styles of Cloaks, Basquines and Paletots at Smith's, and save from $5 to $10.

You will find the best assortment of Shawls at Smith's, from $2.50 to $40.

You can buy the best Linen Handkerchiefs ever offered in this market for the price for 15, 16, 18, 20 and 25 cents.

The handsomest ladies' real Merino Scarfs ever seen, with broche ends, are at Smith's, prices from 75 cents to $2.

The best Blankets in Virginia for the money are at Smith's.

The best winter heavy Flannels can be found at Smith's.

The largest assortment of Cassimeres, Satinets, and pantaloon goods generally, is at Smith's.

Over 3,000 Neckties, pure silk and new style, at Smith's, for 25 cents each.

You can find the best all wool two-ply Carpets at Smith's for $1.25.

The celebrated reversible-feed, self-adjusting, tension Florence Sewing Machine is for sale at Smith's, who is general agent for Virginia and North Carolina.

It is to be hoped that all in want of goods in our line will give us a call. They will then have the proof of the above statements.

THE MOST VALUABLE

REAL ESTATE

IN NORTH CAROLINA, FOR SALE.

IN PURSUANCE of a decree of our Court of Equity, I shall sell at public Auction on the premises, on the 1st day of January 1867, at the hour of 12 M., the property known as

GRISWOLD'S HOTEL,

In Goldsborough, N. C.

Including 175 acres of Land adjoining said town, and what is known as the "Stable Lots," on John Street, on the following terms: The purchasers will be required to advance to the Master a sum sufficient to effect an insurance as directed by the decree, and to pay the costs of the proceedings, to secure the remainder of the purchase money by bonds with security payable in six, twelve and eighteen months, with interest from date. Possession given on or before the 10th of January, and the title retained until the purchase money is paid.

W. G. MORRISEY,

Clerk and Master in Equity for Wayne County.

—ALSO—

I shall sell at the same time and place, 5-16 interest in a tract of Land in Chatham County, and in a tract of land in Moore County, being the same which were conveyed on the 8th and 16th of December 1854 by Amos Wade, to William Kornegay and others, and which are valuable on account of the coal mines which they contain. Terms, 4 per cent cash, bond with approved security for the balance payable six months after date with interest from date. Title retained until the purchase money is paid.

W. G. MORRISEY, C. M. E.

Nov. 23—td Of Wayne County.

NOTICE.

BY virtue of a decree of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of Washington County at November Term A. D. 1866, I shall offer for sale at the Court-House door in Plymouth the following real estate belonging to Josiah Collins dec'd, lying and being in the county of Washington, viz:

One tract of land containing 4,428 acres called "Somerset Place," it being the farm on which the said Josiah Collins resided, and is situated on Lake Scuppernong. This Farm has a frontage of one mile on said Lake and runs back six miles to the Scuppernong River and is drained by two Canals to said river. About 1,100 acres of it are cleared—the uncleared land is heavily timbered with Cypress, Pine, Oak, Poplar, Ash and Maple. There is a water power on the place that drives a Saw Mill, Grist Mill and Machinery for Thrashing, shelling, cleaning and elevating grain.

Also, a Tract of Land about one mile from the above on Lake Scuppernong known as Western, containing 1,450 acres of which about 600 are cleared. On this tract there are no buildings of any description. Also, various tracts of wild and unimproved land lying in Washington County containing 6,110 acres.

Also, an undivided ½ interest in an unimproved tract of land known as the Nerbold tract containing 1,400 acres covered with valuable timber.

Also, will be sold on the 12th. day of January 1867 at the Court House door in Columbia one undivided ½ interest in a certain Tract of Swamp land containing 5,000 acres known as the Frying Pan Tract.

Also, will be sold at the Court House in Newbern an undivided ½ interest in a tract of Land lying on the Lakes in the county of Craven containing 1,444 acres.

Also, an undivided ½ interest in lots Nos. 49, 50, 204, 375 and 376, in the town of Newbern.

Also an undivided ½ interest in a tract of land adjoining town of Newbern containing 2½ acres.

At the Court House door in Louisburg and County of Franklin, on the 13th. January 1867 one tract of Land known as "Hurry Scurry" adjoining Cobbs X Roads containing 625 acres.

WILSON MALE AND FEMALE HIGH SCHOOL,

WILSON, N. C.

THIS School will open the Second Monday in January, in the large and commodious buildings formerly occupied by Dr. Deems.

The Principal has associated with him Professor AVERETT and LADY, of Halifax County, Virginia. Professor AVERETT is a graduate of the University of Virginia. He is a teacher of many years experience—was Professor of Mathematics in the Danville Female College until he resigned his position to take his place in the Confederate army. He is known to be a ripe scholar and an accomplished gentleman.—Mrs. AVERETT is also well known, both in Virginia and North Carolina, as a successful teacher, in both the Literary and Music Departments of the best Female Schools.

In a word, the Principal has resolved to make this School all that it professes to be, viz: a High School of the first grade. In order to this, he has employed only such teachers as are known to be accomplished scholars, and who have established a reputation as successful instructors.

The number of pupils will not hereafter be limited; and additional teachers will be employed as soon as the patronage will justify it.

The Music Department will be committed to Mrs. AVERETT, who will be assisted by Mrs. ARRINGTON.

All the teachers will reside in the College Buildings. Young ladies can obtain board with the Principal, and boys can secure board with private families in the town.

The session will comprise twenty weeks. The terms per session will be—

Primary Department,	$15 to $20
Higher English Branches,	25
Latin and Greek, each,	5
French and Drawing, each,	12
Music and Painting, each,	25
Board, exclusive of lights and washing,	40
Incidental expenses,	1

The above prices are in specie or its equivalent, one half in advance.

Pupils will be allowed to attend church according to the wishes of their parents or guardians.

Debts cannot be contracted without permission from parents or guardians.

Pupils boarding with the Principal must furnish one pair of sheets, pillow cases, blankets or comforts and four towels.

The government will be mild but firm.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, } Editors.
SEATON GALES. }

Friday Evening, Dec. 14, 1866.

They Will and they Wont.

We believe that no people ever labored so hard to please a government—to submit to all its requisitions, and have been more willing to cultivate harmony and friendship, so far as they were allowed, than the Southern people. Their loyalty to the government since the surrender, can be proven before any unprejudiced people beyond all dispute. If we have not loved the Northern people better, it was because they would not let us. If our confidence in their justice and fidelity have not increased, it is because they would not allow it. They charge us with contumacy, stubbornness and rebellion, without evidence. They speak of our rebellious feelings, when we simply refuse to admit that we are disloyal or refuse to consent to become serfs or slaves. Facts prove that the Southern people are not insensible to acts of kindness or generosity. Their readiness to forgive and to forget, is indicated, the moment the harsh and unforgiving temper of our enemies relaxes.—Yet all this avails nothing. We have simply stood upon our honor. We have asked that there may be spared, if all things else be taken from us, yet the implacable ruling party of the country, refuses even this.

As the Richmond Enquirer forcibly says, "we cannot satisfy men who do not intend to be satisfied—who cannot afford to be satisfied. We cannot convince them that we are loyal, for it does not suit them for us to be loyal. We cannot remove the reason of their course towards us. All that we may do, is to dishonor their pretexts and discredit their disguises, by a prudent, moderate, peaceable course on our own part. Slander will lose its efficacy after awhile, if we afford it no color of support.

In one thing the Radicals have been singularly slow to learn. If Southern votes are wanted, why not take the trouble to win them? Is it wise to assume that this is impossible? Whom have the people of the South regarded with greater or juster aversion than William H. Seward? They verily believed, this day they verily believe, that he was the prime cause and author of the terrible war through which the country has passed, and the awful woes which have fallen on the South. Whom have we been more bitter against than Andrew Johnson? We felt that he had been false to his State and people, at a time when every true son and brother ought to have linked his fate with ours. Yet these citizens have quickly won upon our favor, by a mere modicum of kindness and consideration, extended to us in our sorrow. There are no men in the Radical ranks whom it would be less easy to forgive. Why do they not give us a chance? They are welcome to the offices,—we know they are not for us. If we have indicated a partiality for one party over another at the North, it is not because we owe gratitude to any. We have listened as they contended among themselves which had contributed most men to burn our homes and desolate our fields and slay our kindred. What friends have we to remember, save a few whom we can count on our fingers? Our preference, therefore, looks not to the past, but to the present. Sumner's record, or Wade's record, is not one whit worse than Seward's. Not so bad. They have not done as much harm as he. They could conciliate us by a little justice and a little kindness, as easily as Seward has done. The Southern people are not implacable. They are not vindictive. Why do not the Radicals take the hint? Why do they not pour oil into our wounds instead of vitriol? Why seek to maintain their hold on office by a violence against us, which will one day react to their overthrow,—instead of securing our good will by a course which will also give repose and prosperity to the country, and secure the general good will? Suppose they think of these things,—they are worth their attention."

Repudiation.

In the telegraphic columns of the Norfolk Virginian, we find the following rather obscure paragraph:

RALEIGH, Dec. 10.

The Legislature is in favor of the repudiation of the interest of the State debt, which will probably be funded.

The above we find in our cotemporary, the Wilmington Dispatch, accompanied by some appropriate remarks, which, if the telegram were true, would have been very just. We are however, prepared to correct it.

The telegram which was sent from here by the Press Agent of the new Association, to our surprise, has been totally perverted, since it left the telegraph office of this city. It was prepared by the Agent in our office. Only a portion of the telegram was given to the public, and that portion which was published was wholly incorrect. We have been furnished with the entire original telegram sent, and we give it, verbatim et literatim, as follows:

"Evans, Washington:—Gov. Worth, in correspondence with the President relative to Gen. Sickles' order prohibiting corporal punishment by Courts of N. C.,—not Gov. Holden, as erroneously stated by you. Object of Holden's visit to Washington unknown.

Hon. Z. B. Vance delivered lecture on Saturday evening before Young Men's Christian Association on the past present and future of N. C. Numerous measures for the relief of the people are pending in Legislature. Sentiment of the body decidedly adverse to repudiation. Interest on State debt to be funded, present condition of the people precluding its immediate payment.

Resolutions asserting loyalty of the State, and denying alleged persecution of Union men passed the Commons by a large vote. Strong feeling in favor of completing works of Internal Improvement. Bill passed the Commons extending Fayetteville and Coalfields R. R. to the N. C. Road, West.

INAUGURATION.—The inauguration of Gov. Worth, which was to have taken place on to-morrow, has been postponed to Friday the 22nd inst.

Consistency!—The Case in a Nutshell.

No man in the South, more heartily endorsed at first, President Johnson's policy of reconstruction, than the late Prov. Gov. Holden.—He was the only man in the State of any prominence, who thought the precise plan of the President in carrying it out, was the better one. Every other public man in the State that we know of, thought the Sherman-Johnson plan of executing his policy, the better one; yet all quickly acquiesced in the plan of the President, as it was understood. That plan has been faithfully carried out by the people and civil officers of the State. Mr. Holden says it was not carried out. Why? Simply because the people did not elect him and his special friends to fill the offices. The people could not confide in them and elected what they believed more loyal and more reliable men. The people have elected no man whose loyalty to the government of the United States they doubted; nor could they be induced to elect a known disloyal man.

The President's policy recognized the existence of the Southern States, and when they had complied with the terms of surrender, by which they were literally ruined in a pecuniary sense, the President acknowledged the right of those States to the recognition of Congress. Their existence as States both the Congress and the Judiciary have fully acknowledged. Mr. Holden's failure to be made civil Governor and Mr. Pool's failure to be re-elected Senator, simply because the people had no confidence in either, has metamorphosed them and their friends, and presto! change! they all abandon the President and their former avowed principles, and present a totally new programme to Congress in the bill of Mr. Stevens, for the reconstruction of the State. That plan ignores the political existence of the Southern States, falls back upon the secession theory of Greely, Stevens and others, that the States did of right secede, and failing to make it good, forfeited all their rights as States by secession, and hence are now only conquered territories. Will the Congress sanction such a theory, simply to punish the South? We do not believe it. Can Congress thus stultify itself by ignoring all its past positions and giving its sanction to the very theory which it had all along condemned? We cannot believe it, until the deed is done.

The Telegram.

The telegram we published last evening, in reference to the bill of Mr. Stevens, which proposes to supersede the State government of North Carolina, and treat us as a territory, we are indebted to the U. S. and European Press Association, conducted under the auspices of D. H. Craig, Esq., which came in advance of all others. The dispatches of the Sentinel, after to-morrow, will be received from that association alone. We hope they will be more satisfactory to our readers.

RUMORS.—We learn that it is rumored, but it appears to be well founded, that the bill presented by Mr. Stevens, on yesterday, in the House of Representatives, in relation to North Carolina, was prepared in this city, and that now petitions are being gotten up in this State, to be sent at once to Congress, urging its passage. We do not dream of its passage, yet, would it not be well for the members of the Legislature who are opposed to it, to prepare a short but proper petition to be at once published, and circulated for names to counteract the influence of these disturbers of our peace?

BEAU HICKMAN.—Colonel Hickman authorizes us to deny that he is a native of North Carolina. Like Henry Clay and Patrick Henry, he was born at the slashes of Hanover. The Colonel says that it is preposterous for a State that produces nothing but tar and turpentine to claim the parentage of the greatest financier of the age. North Carolina can turn out Badgers, Grahams and Clingmans, but never a Hickman. —Star.

Perhaps Col. Hickman belongs to the F. F. Vs. We have nothing of the sort in North Carolina. We have Hickmans too, but they are not known beyond the smoke of their own chimnies. As to Beau Hickman were he to pass through our State a dozen times, perhaps no one would find it out, except the bar keepers.

NORTH CAROLINA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

FRIDAY, Dec. 14.

The Senate was called to order at 10½ o'clock A. M.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Hardie of the Presbyterian church.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Robins, from the committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred a bill to grant a general amnesty in this State, recommending that it do pass.

Mr. Cunningham, from the committee on Propositions and Grievances, to whom was referred a bill to repeal an act to provide hands to work on public roads, recommended that it do pass.

Mr. McLean, from the committee on Internal Improvements, to whom was referred a bill to amend an act to incorporate the Wilmington and Raleigh Railroad, recommending its passage.

By the same, a bill to amend the charter of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, recommending its passage.

By the same, a bill to enable the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad to complete their road and for other purposes, recommending its passage.

Mr. Clark, from the committee on Corporations, to whom was referred, a bill to incorporate the Dental Association in this State, recommending its passage.

By the same, a petition and memorial from the citizens of Pasquotank county relative to the extension of the corporation of Elizabeth City, recommended the passage of the bill authorizing the same.

Mr. Hall, by leave, presented a memorial from Mr. Michael Robins, of Wilmington, relative to the tax on medicines, &c. Referred to the committee on Finance.

Mr. Leach introduced a resolution proposing to send a message to the House to consider the propriety of sending copies of the report of the Committee on the Howard Amendment, to his Excellency, President Johnson, Secretary of State, and his Excellency, Gov. Worth. Subsequently the House concurred in the proposition.

A message was received from the House, with a communication from the Governor, covering a report from the President of the University, with a proposition to print. Concurred in.

The resolutions delaring the loyalty of the people of this State being the special order for 11 o'clock, were taken up.

Mr. Jones, of Wake, offered a substitute proposing to print the same, and refer the whole matter to the Judiciary Committee.

This proposition created some debate, and the reference was made. The substitute is as follows:

Whereas, The late unfortunate conflict of arms between the United States Government and the government of the Confederate States, so called, begat feelings of great hostility, not only between the people of two sections of our common country, but between the inhabitants of North Carolina, on the one side, known as Union men, and on the other as sesessionists, and, whereas, resistance to the authorities of the United States ceased with the surrender of the Southern armies, and, whereas, it is the duty of every one having surrendered in good faith, to observe inviolate, in thought, action, or speech, the oath of loyalty by him subscribed, and, whereas, doubts seem to pervade the minds of our Northern brethren as to the actual state of public sentiment among us upon these subjects.

Therefore be it resolved, That the members of this General Assembly do, individually and collectively, declare their desire for harmony and prosperity among all classes of our people, North and South, East and West, that they earnestly and conscientiously desire a restoration of the Union, and of fraternal feeling with the citizens of any and every State thereof, and they will also inculcate, both by their action as Legislators and citizens, the lessons of true loyalty and obedience to the United States Government, for the present as well as for the future.

Resolved, That they cherish for their fellow-citizens in affliction, caused by the late war, of whatever class, the deepest sympathy; and take this occasion to express, especially towards that portion of our people who, during the conflict, were exiled, or injured in any way or manner whatever, the kindest and most brotherly feelings; and that, setting aside forever the troubles of the past, we are willing to strive with them for the maintenance and perpetuation of a common country, proscribing no one for opinion's sake merely.

Resolved, That with "charity towards all, and malice towards none," we deem it our duty, as Legislators holding in trust the honor and welfare of the whole people, to protest against violent language or heated controversy at this time of our common calamity, and invoke all to remember, that but lately, words led us to blows, and blows to the destruction of our property, our government, and many of our best and bravest citizens.

Resolved, That regretting the errors of the past and willing to improve the future by the use of every means in our power to render our country happy and prosperous once more, we recommend to the present generation, charity and forbearance to all the citizens of our common country.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the President of the United States to be laid before Congress.

The bill for the relief of honest dedtors being the special order for 12 o'clock, was taken up.

Mr. Speed addressed the Senate at considerable length in support of the bill, Mr. Moore replied, and Mr. Speed rejoined, when,

On motion of Mr. Paschall, the Senate adjourned till 10½ o'clock to-morrow.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Friday, Dec. 14.

The House was called to order at 10½ o'clock A. M.

Prayer by Rev. Dr. Smedes of the Episcopal Church.

The Journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Messrs. Williams of Martin, Gorham, Davis, Rosebro and Moore of Hertford, were allowed to record their votes in favor of the resolution rejecting the Howard amendment, passed on yesterday.

Mr. Cowan presented a memorial from Geo. W. Mordecai and others asking amendments to the charter of the North Carolina Railroad, accompanied by a bill embodying the proposed amendments. Referred to the committee on Internal Improvement and was ordered to be printed.

Mr. Kenan, from the Commitee on the Judiciary, reported (in response to a resolution of inquiry) a bill granting the right of appeal when criminals under sentence of death are unable to give security.

On motion of Mr. Dargan, the rules were suspended and the bill was put on its second reading.

Messrs. Dargan, Stone and Long addressed the House in favor of the bill.

The bill passed second and third readings.

Mr. McKay, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back favorably, a bill to exempt certain personal property, from sale under execution, and to provide a homestead.

Adversely, from same committee, a resolution giving the appointment of Flour Inspectors in the City of Wilmington, to the Mayor and Commissioners of said city.

Mr. McClammy, from the Committee on Private Bills, reported back favorably, a bill to prohibit citizens of other States fishing in Currituck Sound.

Mr. Moore of Hertford, from the Relief Committee, reported a bill altering an ordinance of the Convention to change the jurisdiction of the courts and the rules of pleading therein.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

By Mr. Williams of Martin, a bill to appoint a Tax Collector for the county of Martin.

By Mr. Scott, a bill to abolish imprisonment for debt.

Mr. Allen; a bill to amend the existing law in relation to contracts with freedmen.

By Mr. Wilson of Perquimans, a bill to incorporate the Trustees of Perquimans Male and Female Academy.

By Mr. Foard, a bill to promote the Agricultural interests of the State and for other purposes: also, a bill to amend the charter of the Plaster Banks and Salt Works Railroad.

By Mr. Patton, a bill to protect Executors and Administrators: also, a bill to give Buncombe Superior Court exclusive jurisdiction of the Buncombe Turnpike Road.

Mr. Perry of Carteret, from the Committee on Claims, reported a resolution in favor of John H. Wheeler. [To pay him $100 for his services in procurring the land scrip for North Carolina.]

A bill restoring to Married Women their common law Right of Dower, was put on its third reading.

Messrs. McKay, Morehead, Dargan, Kenan and Richardson addressed the House in support of the bill.

Messrs. Long and Russ opposed the bill, if its action was intended to be retrospective, and exempt real estate from sale under execution for debts heretofore contracted.

Mr. Long moved to amend the bill by adding a proviso that it shall not affect debts contracted prior to its passage.

Mr. Hutchison opposed both bill and amendment, as being whether, prospective or retrospective in action, unjust to creditors, and highly impolitic.

The question recurring the amendment was rejected.

Mr. Hodnett favored the bill but did not think it afforded adequate relief to the people. He objected to its partial legislation, and preferred that the bill should be recommitted and that some measure affording ampler relief should be brought forward.

The question recurring on the passage of the bill, it passed its third reading and was ordered to be engrossed,

A bill in relation to the County seat of Clay county, passed its several readings under a suspension of the rules.

A bill to authorize the Comptroller to employ a clerk, was laid on the table, on motion of Mr. Morton.

Mr. Crawford, of Rowan, (by leave) introduced a bill to authorize the incorporated towns of the State to establish a system of Public Schools.

Mr. Cowan, [by leave] introduced a bill to establish a Criminal Court in the county of New Hanover, to be held in the city of Wilmington.

The House then adjourned.

The Direct Tax--The Constitutional Amendment--Second Letter from Gov. Swain.

RALEIGH, 7th Dec., 1866.

My Dear Sir:—Your letter of the 23d, in answer to mine of the 19th ult., was duly received, and I avail myself of the earliest leisure afforded me from multifarious and pressing engagements, to reply.

The earliest rebellion known to authentic history, was the revolt of the ten tribes of Israel, which resulted in their severance from the kingdom of Solomon, the segregation and union of two, the dispersion of ten, and the ultimate ruin of all. That, like most of the wars which have scourged the earth in subsequent ages, was occasioned by oppressive taxation. The American revolution had its origin in a three penny tax upon tea imposed by a parliament in which we had no representation, and resulted, as our fathers supposed, in the establishment of the fundamental principle that taxation and representation in all future time, would "be one and inseparable." The fifth of the series of resolutions adopted yesterday by the Republican caucus at Washington calls for the appointment of a "select committee to investigate the proceedings, under the laws for the collection of direct taxes in rebel States, and the securing and sale of abandoned and confiscated lands, and other property." I suspect it would be in our power to furnish information on this subject in relation to the States of North and South Carolina, not readily obtainable in Washington.

Direct taxes levied according to the rule of apportionment prescribed by the first great compromise of the Constitution, you will remember, were levied under the administration of the elder Adams, when we were in the midst of financial difficulties arising out of the Revolution, were resorted to again during the war of 1812, but in both instances tolerated only from the necessities of the times, and in consequence of the gross irregularity and oppression produced by the system, were of short duration.

On the 5th of August, 1861, Congress ventured upon a third experiment of this system, and enacted, "That a direct tax of twenty millions of dollars be and is hereby annually laid upon the United States, and the same shall be and is hereby apportioned to the States respectively in manner as follows:"

* * * * * * *

"To the State of North Carolina, five hundred and seventy-six thousand one hundred and ninety-four and two-third dollars."

In the month of March last, I visited Washington at the instance of the Governor and the Public Treasurer, for the purpose, among other things, of conferring with the Secretary of the Treasury in relation to this imposition. The Secretary could afford no relief. The House of Representatives, a few days previous to my arrival, had refused to receive a communication addressed by the Governor to the Speaker. I supposed, however, that if we had no right to representation, or, as a State, to any species of intercommunication with the Federal Government, that the right of petition would be accorded to me as an individual. As the only alternative afforded me, I prepared the following petition, which Mr. Johnson, the distinguished Senator from Maryland, presented to the Senate the day after my departure. The following reference to it in the proceedings of the Senate, as reported in the National Intelligencer, contains all the information I possess, of the disposition made of it: "Mr. Johnson presented the petition of David L. Swain, of Orange county, N. C., stating that the revenue officers of the Government are collecting the tax imposed on land for the year 1862, and claim the right to collect 80 cents on the $100 value as assessed for State taxation in 1860, which the petitioner states is ten times greater than the average tax levied by the State since the adoption of the Constitution in 1776, and he therefore asks the repeal of the law under which such authority is claimed. Referred to the committee on Finance."

"To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States:

The petition of David L. Swain, a citizen of the County of Orange, in the State of North Carolina, humbly sheweth, that the Revenue officers of the Government are entering upon the collection of the tax imposed upon lands for the year 1862, and claim the right to collect 80 cents on the $100 value as assessed for State taxation in 1860, that the rate per cent. claimed is four times as great as the highest, and more than ten times the average rate levied by the State, since the adoption of the Constitution in 1776. That in the village of Chapel Hill, in which he resides, this disproportion is greatly increased by the diminution in value of real estate, by the effects of the war, and will increase the rate per cent. upon the lowest estimate to $2 upon the $100 value, or 30 times the amount ordinarily levied by the State Government, and that in other sections, by the devastation which followed in the wake of the armies, still greater inequality has been produced.—Your petitioner supposes it not impossible, that the rate per cent. proposed to be collected may be occasioned to some extent by an erroneous construction of the law or the difficulty in the disordered state of the times, in obtaining the necessary information to enable the fiscal agents of the government to carry it into execution according to its true intent. The fact that, in the adjoining State of Virginia, the rate per cent. is but 27 cents on the $100 value, gives color to such a conclusion.

"Your petitioner begs leave to intimate to your honorable body, that if it shall be found that there is no mistake on the part of the collecting officers, but that the inequality arises from the tax having been imposed according to the rule of apportionment, that very strong reasons exist for the relief which Congress, and Congress only, can afford. According to the returns made to the census bureau, the average value of land in North Carolina is $6, in Maryland $30, and New Jersey $60 per acre.

"At the time the tax was imposed, the species of property upon which the rule of apportionment was founded had ceased to exist, and North Carolina, then, as now, had no representation in either House of Congress under that, or any other rule.

"The entire property, real and personal, of the State of North Carolina in 1860, did not exceed in value 500 millions of dollars. It is largely estimated at the present time at half that amount. By the repudiation of the war debt every dollar of banking capital in the State was annihilated, and the loss thus sustained has fallen most heavily on widows and orphans, and on literary and charitable institutions whose entire means of support, in many instances, were vested in, and dependent upon, these institutions.

"Your petitioner, during a long course of life, has enjoyed more than ordinary opportunities for acquiring correct information with respect to the condition and resources of the State of North Carolina, and begs leave to assure your honorable body, that there is no fact stated in relation to the oppression likely to be produced by this law, or the enormous disproportion of the exactions under it, as compared with other States, which is not susceptible of the clearest proof, and he therefore humbly prays that it may be repealed."

This tax of twenty millions, "annually levied upon the United States," from the gross inequality of its operation, even when confined to the non-slaveholding States, was levied for a single year only. It has been carried into effect in North Carolina, in some instances, most oppressively.

The average value of lands per acre in this State, is estimated by the Census Bureau at one tenth of those of New Jersey, but the poorest district in North Carolina pays the same tax as the richest in New York or Boston—Nay, more, three-fifths of the slaves are computed in the apportionment, and the number of whites, on whom the tax falls, is consequently diminished in proportion. The Revenue officers in the first district, for example, where an invading army, preceding the tax collector, laid Plymouth, like Columbia, in ashes, manumitted the slaves, foraged on town and country, under a most unwarrantable construction of the act of Congress, wrested from the impoverished owners the rate upon the value of their lots and houses, as assessed for State taxation in 1860.—The best house in the county in which I reside was burned by accident in 1861, and under the act of August, 1861, the owner was, in 1866, required to pay tax according to the valuation of 1860.

So much in relation to taxation. Let us now see what the right of representation amounts to at present and in prospective. In May, 1865, President Johnson invited William W. Holden, Esq., to visit Washington, and bring with him such gentlemen as he might select, to confer with him in relation to a re-organization of the State Government. He went on promptly, accompanied by Robert P. Dick, William S. Mason, W. R. Richardson, J. P. H. Russ, and John G. Williams, Esqs. Two days thereafter, the President instructed Gen'l. Schofield "to permit ex-Governor Swain, B. F. Moore, and William Eaton, and such others as are unquestionably loyal, and desire to confer with me as to the organization of the State, to visit Washington and to furnish them with passes and Government transportation."

The nine gentlemen above named, had repeated conferences with the President, at the conclusion of which Mr. Holden was appointed Provisional Governor, Robert P. Dick District Judge, a third member of Governor Holden's delegation District Attorney, a fourth Marshall, and a fifth Postmaster of the city of Raleigh.—No one of these gentlemen could take the test oath. Mr. Dick, who was in all other respects worthy and well qualified, was, together with the Provisional Governor, a member of the seceding Convention, and voted for the ordinance of secession. He was, nevertheless, throughout the session, the earnest and eloquent advocate of civil liberty—voted and spoke against the proposed ordinance to punish sedition and exact test oaths, and insisted that the proceedings of the Convention should not take effect, until, and unless, sanctioned by a popular vote.

I trust I may be permitted, without offence to delicacy, to refer specially to the personal history of the second gentleman named in the telegram from the President to Gen. Schofield. He stands in relation to the bar of North Carolina, as Mr. Pettigrew did to the bar of your State. He was not less decidedly and conspicuously the advocate of the Union in every period of the contest, and was again and again, in greater peril of life, liberty and property, than owing to his suavity of manners and universaly popularity, Mr. Pettigrew ever encountered.

I stated in my letter of the 19th that "I did not know of a single instance in any one of the Congressional districts of a person who could take the test-oath, who in 1860, would have regarded himself, or was considered by others, as one of the number who might reasonably aspire to a seat in the national councils." I am now at the seat of Government, have had repeated conferences with leading members of the General Assembly and other intelligent gentlemen, and have conversed with no one who dissents from this statement. Few gentlemen are so familiar with persons of all shades of political opinion as Governor Holden. If, in May, 1865, when requested by the President to summon to his aid gentlemen of unquestionable loyalty, he selected no one who could undergo the test of the oath referred to, it is fair to presume that he had no knowledge of any competent person who could. If Mr. Moore could not, who can?

I repeat, therefore, that the third section in connection with the test oath, is a double disfranchisement of nine-tenths of the people of North Carolina, and that I do not believe that a majority of the Committee of Fifteen, if accurately acquainted with our condition, would desire its adoption.

I have no disposition to deal in invective in relation to either the North or the South. The solemnity of the crisis should admonish every patriot to avoid it. I most earnestly desire the perfect restoration of the National Union, not merely in name, but in heart. Much of the unkindnes which exists at present has been fomented by intemperate speakers and writers North and South and South and North. In too many instances the newspaper press has tended rather to excite, and inflame, than enlighten the public mind.

I know something of the history of the test oath. I have reason to believe that at the time that Governor Holden entered upon the discharge of his duties, the Attorney General of the United States (Mr. Speed) did not regard it as applying to him or his associate appointees. If not then, why now? I must not tax your patience, however, by extending my letter to unreasonable length, and therefore forbear, for the present, from entering further into a subject which may call for attention hereafter.

I remain, very truly and sincerely,

Your friend,
D. L. SWAIN.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For the speedy and certain Cure of Intermittent Fever, or Chills and Fever, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed, for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

This remedy has rarely failed to cure the severest cases of Chills and Fever, and it has this great advantage over other Ague medicines, that it subdues the complaint without injury to the patient. It contains no quinine or other deleterious substance, nor does it produce quinism or any injurious effect whatever. Shaking brothers of the army and the west, try it and you will endorse these assertions.

TRINITY COLLEGE.

THE next Term will commence Jan. 8th. 1867. Students not desiring to take the full course, can enter such department as they choose, and on completing the studies thereof, will receive a diploma to that effect. In addition to the usual chairs of instruction, we have a scientific, and a Commercial School with all necessary facilities.

The Trustees and the Conference have recently established a School of "Biblical Literature," and have elected Rev. Peter Doub, D. D. Professor. The instruction in this, including Hebrew and other languages, will be fully equal to the standard proposed by the General Conference.

Students in this department pay no tuition fees.
Expenses payable in currency in advance.
Tuition $35 per session.
Board, including well furnished room, $15 per month.
Tuition in Preparatory School $20 to $30 per session.

THE SENTINEL.

Friday Evening, Dec. 14, 1866.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—We have for the want of space failed to notice our new advertisements for several days. Some of them are important and hence we notice them now:

Dr. M. Closs, an experienced and excellent teacher, has taken charge of Durham Academy. It is a good location for a school. See advertisement.

Application will be made to the Legislature for a charter incorporating the town of Scotland Neck.

Rev. Dr. Wilson's well known school for boys at Melville, Orange Co. will open its next session on the 17th of Jan. next.

That excellent School, Louisburg Male Academy, opens its next session the 14th. of Jan. next. It is a school of decided merit.

Notice changes in the advertisement of the Warrenton Female College.

R. B. Andrews & Co., continue to receive new goods. They are prepared to fit in the best style.

Trinity College under an excellent corps of Professors will open its next session Jan. 8th. The Chair of "Biblical Literature" is a new feature, and will be presided over by that excellent Biblical scholar, Rev. Dr. Doub.

The Hotel at Company's Shops will be rented out at public auction on the 28th inst.

J. Brown, with Hart & Lewis, is constantly adding new and useful articles to their stock.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker, & Co. advertise new goods. Their stock is large and going off.

The Store and Lot on which is the Sentinel office, will be sold at public auction on Tuesday next.

Hughes Academy, Orange County, a good school for boys, opens its next session on the 14th inst.

Capt. T. F. Lee has lost a terrier dog, which he wishes to recover.

Come One! Come All!!

The magnificent Fair, for the benefit of the Memorial Cause, will open at the Yarbrough House, on Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, and continue through Saturday and Saturday night.

No effort has been spared to render it a splendid affair. There will be on exhibition substantial and fancy articles of every description. A table exclusively for the poor, and last, but by no means the least, a feast, the mere mention of which, is calculated to whet the most fastidious appetite.

Again the Ladies extend invitations to all.

Rev. R. H. Mason, jr., of this city, has been called to take charge of the Episcopal Church in Bath, Va., and the Rev. T. G. Haughton, of this State, goes to the charge of an Episcopal Church in Accomac, Va.

WINE.—We are indebted to A. C. Latham, Esq., one of the Commoners of Craven, for a splendid article of Scuppernong wine, entirely free from distilled spirits, manufactured by the late F. P. Latham, Esq., of Craven. Mr. Latham has an order from New Jersey for 800 gallons of this wine at $5 per gallon.

Gen. Colston, of Hillsboro' Military Academy, is in this city. He will deliver a lecture before the Young Men's Christian Association, on Thursday night next. Subject,—"Personal recollections of Stonewall Jackson, and a critical discussion of his military character."

R. S. Perry, Esq., one of the Commoners of Wake, was detained from his seat on Thursday by illness; otherwise, his name would have appeared among those who voted against the Howard amendment.

COMMISSIONERS.—At the request of the Legislature, Gov. Worth, in company with Hon. Thos. Ruffin and Hon. D. L. Swain, leave for Washington City to-night, to seek an interview with the authorities of the Government in reference to the late order of Gen. Sickles, relating to corporal punishment.

A number of the members of the House who heard the able speech of Col. J. T. Morehead, one of the members from Guilford, on the bill to restore to married women their common law right of dower to-day, we learn addressed him a note requesting a copy for publication.

We regret to learn from the Norfolk Virginian, that C. W. Mixon, Esq., of Chowan, lately severely scalded on the Kelso, on Chesapeake bay, died in Norfolk on the 11th inst. Mr. M. has been a leading farmer in Chowan.

PAINTINGS.—We are indebted to Mr. J. G. Hester for a beautiful oil painting of Rev. John Wesley. He has also oil paintings of Gens. Lee and "Stonewall" Jackson and others, which are very fine. They are not colored engravings as we said the other day, but they are real oil paintings, and very cheap.

NEW PUBLICATIONS.—We are indebted to the publisher of the Watchman Publishing House, New York, for a fine copy of "the last Ninety days of the War," which we noticed some time ago. Also to the publisher of the Newbern Directory prepared by Capt. Shotwell of the Newbern Journal of Commerce, for a copy of that work. It is very creditable and useful. Also to Branson & Farrar, for a copy of their new North Carolina Directory, which is gotten up well, and contains a large amount of information. The arrangement of both of these Directories might possibly be improved, which will no doubt be done, if the public call for them as it should.

Judge W. S. Oldham, late a Confederate Senator from Texas, and exile in Mexico, has returned to that State. The Houston, Telegraph states that the causes which rendered his self-expatriation necessary have been removed, and henceforward make Houston his home, and resume the practice of law.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.

In the Senate, the debate was continved on the amendment of Mr. Dixon to the suffrage bill, which was finally voted down by a large majority.

Mr. Lane declared that the Southern States never should be re-admitted until they had conferred negro suffrage. That the whole matter was in the control of Congress, representing the loyal States, and that neither the President or Cabinet had anything to do with it.

Mr. Wilson said as soon as negro suffrage was established, the Democratic party, with that keen scent peculiar to it, would court the negro influence, and that the Wises and Letchers of the South would be after them, claiming relationship, and as the same blood did really roll in their veins they would bring affidavit to prove it if necessary.

The Senate passed, by a vote of 32 to 13, the bill conferring suffrage in the District of Columbia on colored persons, but excluding, in the language of the bill, those who may have voluntarily given aid and comfort to the rebels in the late rebellion.

A bill for a similar purpose, with unrestricted suffrage passed the House last session, and there is no doubt that the measure will become a law, as two-thirds or more in each branch are in favor of it.

In the House Mr. Stevens stated that he introduced the bill in relation to North Carolina, at the request of several gentlemen of that State.

On motion of Mr. Taylor, of Tennessee, the Secretary of War was requested to furnish any information in the War Department relative to the New Orleans riot.

The discussion on the President's annual message was announced, and Mr. Ward of New York made a speech in which he generally denounced the President.

Senator Yates introduced a bill to-day which relating to the publication of the Constitutional amendment, which provides that upon information being received by the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the House, of the ratification of any amendments to the Constitution by the requisite number of States, duly qualified to pass upon the same, it shall be the duty of the President of the Senate and the Clerk of the House to publish the same in the newspapers now authorized to publish the law. Specifying under their signatures that the amendment has been adopted and now is valid, and binding as a part of the Constitution. In the same manner as formerly certified to by the Secretary of State. The object of this is to deprive the President and Secretary of State of any action in the premises.

The delegation of North Carolina now here, prepared the bill which Thad Stevens introduced to-day to establish civil government in North Carolina.

SENATE.—Mr. Fessenden, from the Finance committee, reported House bill to supply deficiences in the appropriation for fiscal year.—Passed.

The chairman laid betore the Senate an inquiry in writing from the Secretary of the Senate, asking whether the Tennessee Senators should be paid from the time of their admission to the body or from the beginning of the present Congress. Referred to the Judiciary committee.

Dr. Boynton, chaplain, in prayer, thanked God that the goverument had jurisdiction over one place where all men were enfranchised.—(We suppose he meant the District of Columbia. If so, he is slightly mistaken.)

HOUSE.—Mr. Shelleberger presented a petition of the loyal people of Louisiana, asking Congress to establish a government under the care of the U. S. Government, for that State! The memorial was signed by Gov. Wells and many others. (Of course.)

Mr. Julian introduced a bill providing for Territorial goverainents for the districts lately in revolt against the U. S. The bill provides temporary territorial governments for all the late rebellious States except, Tennessee, suffrage being given to all males without regard to color. All who have borne arms against the U. S., or who have held military office under the Confederacy, to be inelligible to hold office or vote.—Referred to the Reconstruction committee.

MEETING OF THE CRAVEN COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AND WINE GROWING ASSOCIATION.—This Association met at the Theatre last evening, the President, Wm. B. Wadsworth, Esq., in the chair. The attendance was very good notwithstanding the cold weather.

Henry R. Bryan, Esq., delivered a neat, brief address, opening with some remarks on the late war, its effects upon the prosperity of the State, the gloomy political present, and the hopes of the future. He then entered upon the character of the soil and climate and the products of Eastern North Carolina, dwelling upon the rich swamp lands and the proper treatment of those considered poor, the manures needed, &c. The grape also claimed his attention, the cultivation of which he urged.

Mr. Bryan deprecated the tide of emigration, and called upon the young men of the State to stand by the old State and her glorious memories. He urged the re-establishment of our Common School system and the imperative necessity of general education. The address was listened to with marked interest, was well conceived and effectively delivered.

After the address much valuable information was imparted by Col. S. S. Biddle, Wm. B. Wadsworth, Esq., Dr. P. E. Hines, Col. H. T. Guion, and others, on the modes of cultivating cotton, the effect of fertilizers, &c., and then the meeting adjoured.—New. Com.

Tribute of Respect.

COLUMBIAN HALL, TRINITY COLLEGE, Dec. 3rd. 1866.

WHEREAS, an allwise God has seen fit in his Providence to remove from our midst, by death our beloved friend T. J. WATSON, of Virginia, an honorable member of our Society, and,

WHEREAS, by this sad event our hearts are filled with mourning, at the loss of one whose native talent, cultivated intellect and manners and indomitable industry, bid fair to make him a bright star in the sky of our Society's history, an honor to this Institution of Learning and a just source of pride to his parents, his relatives and friends, and to his glorious old native State, and

WHEREAS, We are sensibly touched with sympathy for the family of our deceased brother, whose hearts must be wrung with anguish and disappointment at the loss of a darling member: therefore

Resolved, As a token of our grief and deep regret, that each member of this Society wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and

Resolved, As an expression of heart-felt sympathy that we do transmit a copy of these resolutions to the father and family of our deceased brother, praying that God the great comforter of the bereaved, will sustain them under this mournful dispensation of his Providence.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the Raleigh Sentinel and Danville Register.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billions, Dyspeptic and Diarrhoea Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS.

The Louisville Journal says: "The testimonials which Dr. Gardner presents to the public could never have been obtained, except by the display of great skill and learning in his profession. One thing especially commendable in the Doctor's practice is, that he will not attempt an incurable disease for the sake of a fee, but frankly tells the patient whether he can be cured or not. We cheerfully recommend Dr. Gardner to the attention of all our friends who may be suffering from diseases of the eye or ear.

The Richmond Times says: We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. Gardner is the most scientific and successful eye and ear Surgeon in this country.

"Dr. Gardner's treatment of the eye and ear is wonderful."—Richmond Enquirer.

"We feel justified in recommending Doctor Gardner to those suffering from diseases of the eye and ear."—Richmond Whig.

"We can safely and cordially recommend Dr. Gardner, who will fulfill all he undertakes to perform."—Baltimore Clipper.

The New Orleans True Delta says: "We can safely recommend Dr. Gardner as a successful operator on the eye and ear. He will not undertake to treat a case unless a cure can be effected.

The Wheeling Register says: "Dr. Gardner is one of the most successful Oculists and Aurists in the country. We advise those suffering from the diseases of the eye and ear to consult him."

REMARKS.

1. The location of this College is in one of the most pleasant and cultivated towns in North Carolina, long celebrated for its healthfulness.

2. The Principals assure the public that no pains will be spared to render the institution all that parents and guardians could desire it to be—a suitable place for the education of their daughters and wards.

3. In all of its appointments they intend to make it rank with the foremost colleges of our land. They themselves are not novices in this department of labor, but have had ample experience in teaching, and in conducing such enterprises.

4. Pupils will be allowed to attend such places of worship on Sabbath as their parents or guardians may prescribe. One of the teachers will always accompany young ladies to the house of worship.

5. Debts cannot be contracted by the pupils without permission from parents or guardians.

6. Every sleeping room will be supplied with fuel and be carpeted.

7. Pupils must furnish their own towels, and one pair of sheets each, and have their clothing well marked.

PAYMENT:—One half in advance, the other half at the close of the Session.

For further particulars, address either of the principals.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctor and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependences thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1866. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals.

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

J. MAGGIEL, M. D.

P. F. PESCUD AGENT FOR RALEIGH, FOR MAGGIEL'S PILLS AND SALVE.

NOTICE.—None genuine without the engraved trademark around each pot or box, signed by Dr. J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine Street, New York, to counterfeit which is felony.

SALE OF VALUABLE LAND

In Warren County, N. C.

ON TUESDAY, THE 2ND DAY OF JANUARY, 1867, the Subscriber, as Executor of the last will and testament of Samuel T. Alston, deceased, by virtue of the power conferred on him by his Testator, will offer for sale at ARCOLA, in said County, the following Tracts of Land, to-wit: One tract containing about 425 acres, adjoining the HOUSE tract on the East side, and that of Judge Asa Biggs on the North, which tract has on it a small branch-mill, and some improvements, to wit: A half dozen first class negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands.

One tract containing about 457 acres, adjoining the first mentioned tract on the North, and that of Luke Lancaster on the South. This tract has also some improvements in the way of Negro Cabins, Corn Cribs, &c., and is in fine condition for a crop next year, for eight or ten hands. One other tract adjacent to the Grove Hill and Arcola road, adjoining the last mentioned tract on the Northeast, and containing about 800 acres. This tract has no improvements and no cleared land, but is in original growth, well timbered and watered, and is one of the best tracts in Warren County.

One tract known as "Melton's Creek" tract, adjoining the lands of Gen. Samuel A. Williams and Dr. Mark P. Perry, containing, by estimation, 585 acres, about 100 of which is fine low grounds on Melton's Creek. This tract has no improvements, but could easily be put in a condition for cultivation, and is remarkably well adapted to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco and Corn.

One tract known as the "Arcola Tract" situated at the point where the Halifax and Louisburg road crosses the Warrenton and Nashville road. This tract contains 82 acres by estimation, and is well suited to the growth of Cotton, Tobacco, Wheat and Corn. It has on it, just at the cross-roads, a convenient Store House, which is undoubtedly one of the best stands for a Country Store in the State.

The said Tracts of land will be sold at public auction, on a credit of twelve (12) months, with interest from date, and bond with approved security will be required from the purchaser.

The Subscriber will take pleasure in showing the land to any person who may wish to examine it.

ROBERT W. ALSTON, Executor.
Dec. 5 d6t wtds.

NOTICE.

WILL be sold at the Court House door in Raleigh on Thursday the 3rd. day of January A. D. 1867 the house and lot on Fayetteville Street known as the law office of the late J. K. Marriott, being part of Lot No. 115, and the north end of the row of brick offices on said street.

TERMS:—Twelve months credit will be allowed the purchaser on giving bond with two good securities bearing interest from day of sale.

NEW YORK.

TOTAL ASSETTS $706,742.

DIVIDEND FOR 1865 45 PER CENT.

N. D. MORGAN, President.

J. W. MERRILL, Secretary.

The North America Life Insurance Company, from the day of its inauguration to the present time, has outstripped its cotemporaries in growth and prosperity.

Its success is thoroughly attributable to the actual mutual benefit that it grants to the policy-holders, its liberal features, and the perfect security which it is able to guarantee to those whose money is placed with it.

NOTICE, that the North America grants thirty days' grace in payment of Renewals, while in other Companies all the money you have invested is forfeited if your premium is not paid by 12 o'clock, noon, of the day upon which it falls due.

1866. FALL TRADE 1866.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

Ready-Made Clothing,

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

NOTIONS,

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market.
